Injured and orphaned wildlife got second chances at our Cape Wildlife Center.

THE SHELTER PET PROJECT—a collaboration of The HSUS, the Ad Council, and Maddie’s Fund—launches a second national advertising blitz via TV, print, radio, and other media to promote shelter adoptions.

THE HSUS AND AFFILIATES provide rescue and emergency care, spay/neuter and other medical treatment, sanctuary, training, and owner assistance for more than 76,000 animals, including injured wildlife and victims of puppy mills, animal fighting, natural disasters, and the exotic pet trade.

We are...making history

2011 Key Accomplishments

HUMANE SOCIETY INTERNATIONAL’S spay/neuter initiative in Bhutan treats 30,000th street dog, while Spay Day results in 48,000+ cats and dogs spayed or neutered and nearly 700 events worldwide.

THE HSUS REACHES A landmark agreement with the United Egg Producers on phasing out barren battery cages and wins a historic lawsuit against a California egg factory farm, while India prohibits starvation of egg-laying hens. Smithfield Foods commits to phasing out pig gestation crates in its U.S. facilities.

HSUS TEAMS WORK WITH LAW enforcement to raid 16 animal fighting operations, uncover illegal wildlife trade, and crack down on poaching.

HSUS INVESTIGATIONS REVEAL that a large online puppy broker deceptively peddles dogs from puppy mills; NBC’s Today show breaks the story, and HSUS attorneys file a consumer protection lawsuit against Purebred Breeders.
